PARIS, France, August 13.—Reports from Liege are to the effect that the German army which had been swung around Liege forts and had started south for the invasion of France has been cut off from its base of supplies and is now held between the Belgian army gathered for the defense of Liege and the allied troops of France, Great Britain and Belgium gathered at Namur to resist the southern movement.

The Belgian troops which had been driven out of the city, reformed to the west and resumed the defensive. They have blown up the railroad bridges and the bridges across the Meuse and have destroyed the railroad lines, completely cutting off the Germans from their supplies.

The forts at Liege are still holding out.

SHARP ENCOUNTERS BY ADVANCE GUARD

BRUSSELS, Belgium, via London, August 12.—The German advance has had a successful engagement with the Belgians at Tirlemont, charging and routing an infantry regiment which had undertaken to hold them.

A regiment of German dragoons lost, however, in attempting to surprise the Belgian defenders at Ainielle. The dragoons left Liege and rode through the darkness upon the Belgian lines. Their coming became known to the Belgians, who arranged a counter surprise. When the Germans had advanced within striking distance, the Belgians opened a heavy fire in front and from each flank.

The dragoons, seeing that they had been trapped and ambushed broke and fled, leaving one hundred and fifty-three dead and one hundred and three prisoners behind.

McADOO FAVORS WAR TAX ON LUXURIES

WASHINGTON, August 13.—The United States is to have war taxes without going to war. Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo and Representative Underwood, chairman of the house committee on ways and means, are to have a conference tomorrow to determine how the government is to raise funds to offset the loss in tariff revenue, due to the war and the suspension of foreign trade.

One hundred million dollars must be had to keep the government going.

It is suggested that an ad valorem tax be imposed upon tobacco and cigars and that the internal revenue tax upon beer be materially increased.

BERLIN HEARS OF FRENCH REVERSES

BERLIN, via London, August 13.—News of the first important repulse of the French invaders of Alsace has been received here, the reports being that the invaders have been driven back with serious loss.

German territory is now cleared of French, according to the news from the front. At Mulhausen the Germans captured ten French officers, five hundred men, four guns, ten wagons and many rifles, which the French dropped in their hurried retreat.

At Lagarde the Germans captured a thousand prisoners.

AMERICA AND JAPAN REACH UNDERSTANDING

TOKIO, Japan, August 12.—After being cautioned by the Japanese government officials to refrain from sending out reports concerning the American-Japanese situation, your correspondent was today authorized to cable the following statement:

"The negotiations between this country and the United States have finally resulted in America arriving at a complete understanding as to Japan's policy."

"Without pledging themselves as to the future, America announces that she contemplates no interference in Japan's actions in the Far East."

The statement authorized shows conclusively that the threatened crisis between Japan and America has now wholly disappeared. Ambassador Guthrie, after reporting to his government and receiving new instructions, has accordingly left Tokyo and gone to his summer home at Karuizawa, where he expects to stay until the end of September.

The excitement among the people has now subsided and a feeling of easiness prevails.

CRUISER LEIPZIG COALS AT FRISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., August 13.—The German cruiser Leipzig came into the harbor for coal last night, docking about midnight. She will be given sufficient coal to make the next port of call and will be obliged to leave neutral waters by tomorrow night.

There is no direct word regarding the exact whereabouts of the cruiser Nurnberg.

The Californian port has now eighteen British and two French vessels inside for refuge.

Europe--When War Was Declared

Star-Bulletin Readers Kept Informed of Warship News

Owing to the strict censorship imposed by the United States government upon wireless messages, no news can be carried by wireless of movements of war vessels of belligerent nations.

In order to keep its readers fully informed as to the important events, particularly on the Pacific, having to do with the movements of German and British war vessels and other ships, the Star-Bulletin is securing from the Associated Press a special cable service. This does not fall under the ban of the censor, as the news of movements of war vessels is not wirelessly away from Hawaii even though it may come by cable.

The report of the presence of the cruisers Leipzig and Nurnberg off Golden Gate yesterday and the report of the cancellation of the Pacific Mail liner Persia's sailing date, were given publicity yesterday by the Star-Bulletin through this special cable service. Further important and very timely information is contained in cablegrams received and published today.

The Associated Press report of the Persia's cancelled sailing date was followed after the Star-Bulletin went to press yesterday afternoon by a cablegram to H. Hackfeld & Co., confirming the cancellation.

The Star-Bulletin is sparing nothing to make its service as complete as possible so that Hawaii may be given all the news of the war that can be secured. The censorship, while strict, does much to insure accuracy and fairness in the news sent to Hawaii and to guard against unconfirmed, sensational and irresponsible reports that might lead to unnecessary excitement and agitation.

Manoa to Touch San Pedro.

Acting on the requests of the Hawaiian Promotion Committee and the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, Castle & Cooke, agents for the Matson Navigation Company, have announced an experimental trip to San Pedro.

The new steamer Manoa has been selected as the one to make the trip. She will sail from here October 13 on a direct route to San Pedro. Castle & Cooke state that this experiment will be splendid advertising for the islands, and that the question of whether such trips will be made regularly will depend upon the passenger and freight business obtained at the Los Angeles port.

The Matson Navigation Company's new steamer Manoa left for Kahului last evening with freight and passengers for that port.

With a heavy cargo and quite a large passenger list the inter-island steamer Claudine arrived this morning a few minutes after 5 o'clock, reporting a smooth voyage.

Her cargo included 6400 bags of sugar, 316 bundles of hides, 145 bags of taro, 121 bags of cabbage, 43 bags of corn, 29 bags of onions, 19 bags of beans, 125 bags of potatoes. She reports that the S. S. Texan is at Kaunaloa loading sugar.

WITH THE ARMIES.

Through the courtesy of a high official of the Hawaiian Department the Star-Bulletin is enabled to present today the first of series of articles giving authentic and detailed information as to the strength and strategic situation of the warring European nations. The series will be continued from day to day. The first of the series relates to France, and will be followed by a second article on France and then by articles on the other nations.
